

The following is a list of activities and types of agencies that are ineligible for funding from People's United Community Foundation:

- Activism or community organizing
- Advertising (yearbooks, journals, publications, etc.)
- Advocacy
- Animal causes
- Annual appeals and operational fund raising campaigns.
- Arts & Culture organizations, programs, activities and events
- Beauty contests
- Behavioral/mental health
- Capital requests or campaigns
- Childcare/Daycare agencies or programs, subsidies & scholarships (not part of an accredited Head Start or School Readiness program for low income children)
- Conferences, seminars, panel discussions and trips
- Conservation, environmental causes
- Consultants
- Debt reduction
- Discriminatory organizations or activities based on race, religion, etc.
- Disease specific organizations and activities
- Endowments
- Event Sponsorships
- Fiscal Agents or Fiduciaries
- Fundraising Activities/Events (golf tournaments, road races, etc.)
- Health & healthcare programs
- Historic Preservation
- Individuals
- IRS Sub Classification of 509(a)3 Supporting Organization
- Limited/very small number of individuals being served by an organization/program
- Media-related initiatives (television, radio, film, video and books)
- Medical equipment, patient treatment funds, etc.
- Municipal/government entities
- Nursery Schools
- Obesity programs
- Pilot programs, new initiatives and start-ups
- Political Action Committees (PAC's)
- Political, labor, civic or fraternal organizations
- Private Foundations
- Private schools, colleges and prep schools
- Private scholarships/tuition
- Programs, agencies and communities outside of our geographic footprint.
- Public school districts and their individual schools
- Religious organizations, unless supporting non-sectarian broad based community issues
- Research and feasibility studies
- Sports, athletic events, or recreational programs/organizations
- Sponsorships or projects where the Bank or its employees receive tangible benefits or privileges
- Student trips/tours (including transportation and conference costs)
- Substance abuse programs
- Team sponsorships
- Theater, dance and music programs Stand-alone or as part of a youth development/enrichment program
- Third parties raising funds for a charity